Notice RE: PghCHR Case No. EO-2023-006/EEOC Charge No. 533-2023-00027
Maria Gavita v. Trulieve
Complainant's Right to Seek Private, Civil Court Action

Dear Maria Gavita and Trulieve,

Per City Code § 655.07(a), this letter is to notify the parties of the reason(s) that the above captioned case remains open and that the Complainant now has the right to seek private, civil court action based on the allegation(s) of discrimination.

The Pittsburgh Commission on Human Relations' (PghCHR)'s investigation into the above-captioned case has been ongoing for over one (1) year and, to date, no final administrative disposition or settlement agreement has been reached, and the case is not currently in court. The case remains open due to the need for additional interviews and analysis.

Per City Code § 655.07(a), the Complainant is now entitled, although not required, to invoke a private right of action by filing a civil court complaint in the Court of Common Pleas based on their allegation(s) of discrimination.

If the Complainant does file a private court complaint, then, per City Code § 655.07(b), PghCHR asks that they provide a copy to PghCHR. PghCHR will then assess how to proceed with this case. If the Complainant does not file a private court complaint, then PghCHR will continue with
